

Paideia is currently accepting applications to:

Paideia Jewish Educators Program 2014-2015

- Certificate program in Experiential Jewish Education

Paideia's Jewish Educators Program trains outstanding European Jewish educators ready to reimagine Jewish education in Europe.

Features of the Paideia One Year Program:

- Academic studies of Jewish text, culture, tradition and philosophy
- World-leading faculty from the top Israeli and European universities
- Traditional Hevrutah text-study methodology
- Hebrew Ulpan 6 hours per week: beginners, intermediate and advanced
- Mid-year study trip to Israel
- A learning-friendly cross-cultural environment
- A 400-people strong alumni network, follow-up programs and alumni conferences

Special Educators Features:

- Teaching Jewish Holidays Jewish Experiential Education
- Weekly Educational Seminars
- Project development training
- Mentorship & seed money to help implement your educational project

Are you:

- Committed to the renewal of European Jewish life?
- Connected to a Jewish community in Europe?
- Intellectually curious with a documented academic experience? (in any field)
- Great with people?
- Fluent in English? (Paideia language of instruction)
- Ready to reimagine & shape Jewish education in Europe?

Early bird application: March 1st, 2014

Paideia is a non-denominational institute of higher Jewish learning with an academic focus on textual sources.

Dedicated to the renewal of European Jewish culture, Paideia is also an applied institute linking academic studies to action.